DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant

1. This communication is in response to the Amendment filed on 3/28/06. Claims 6-9, 22-23 and 29-33 have been canceled. Claims 1 and 19 have been amended. Claims 1-5, 10-21 and 24-28 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1 and 19 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 is directed to formulating a coherent presentation essentially integrating said information, said coherent presentation encompassing a multiplicity of tasks, said coherent presentation representing an operational plan for performing all of said tasks, the performance of each said task commencing in a said core management function unit, at least some said tasks being performed in plural said core management function units based on said at least one linkage of said individual workflow description with at least one other said individual workflow; uploading said coherent presentation to said server for storage in said centralized database, said coherent presentation being computer-accessible by said core management function units; performing at least one said task, said performance of at least one said task including use of said coherent presentation; and updating said coherent presentation at least once, each said updated coherent presentation being computer-accessible by said core management function units, each said updating including uploading at least a portion of a said individual workflow description describing a said core management function so as to render at least one change to the preceding said individual workflow description describing the same said core management function, said at least one change including modification with respect to said at least one linkage of said individual workflow description with at least one other said individual workflow description.

The closest prior art of record, Hartsog (4,964,060), Normann et al (5,557,537) and Windchill 2.0 by Robert Mills. Computer-Aided Engineering. Cleveland: Mar 1999. Vol.18, Iss.3; pg. 22, 3 pgs disclose workflow management functions and improvements, however, do not disclose or fairly suggest formulating a coherent presentation essentially integrating said information, said coherent presentation encompassing a multiplicity of tasks, said coherent presentation representing an operational plan for performing all of said tasks, the performance of each said task commencing in a said core management function unit, at least some said tasks being performed in plural said core management function units based on said at least one linkage of said individual workflow description with at least one other said individual workflow; performing at least one said task, said performance of at least one said task including use of said coherent presentation; and updating said coherent presentation at least once, each said updated coherent presentation being computer-accessible by said core management function units, each said updating including uploading at least a portion of a said individual workflow description describing a said core management function so as to render at least one change to the preceding said individual workflow description describing the same said core management function, said at least one change including modification with respect to said at least one linkage of said individual workflow description with at least one other said individual workflow description.

Hartsog teaches a method of organizing and effecting a dynamic workflow management system using a computer network that permits computer access to a server capable of containing a centralized database pertaining to said dynamic workflow management system, but does not disclose or fairly suggest uploading said coherent presentation to said server for storage in said centralized database, said coherent presentation being computer-accessible by said core management function units; performing at least one said task, said performance of at least one said task including use of said coherent presentation; and updating said coherent presentation at least once, each said updated coherent presentation being computer-accessible by said core management function units, each said updating including uploading at least a portion of a said individual workflow description describing a said core management function so as to render at least one change to the preceding said individual workflow description describing the same said core management function, said at least one change including modification with respect to said at least one linkage of said individual workflow description with at least one other said individual workflow description.

Normann teaches that the said core management function units, each said updating including uploading at least a portion of a said individual workflow description describing a said core management function so as to render at least one change to the preceding said individual workflow description describing the same said core management function, said at least one change including modification with respect to said at least one linkage of said individual workflow description with at least one other said individual workflow description but does not disclose or fairly suggest uploading said coherent presentation to said server for storage in said centralized database, said coherent presentation being computer-accessible by said core management function units.

Claim 19 is directed to formulating a manual that is at least substantially arranged in accordance with said organizational units and said refined core functions respectively performed by said organizational units, manual covering at least substantially all of the undertakings of said organizational, said manual at least substantially incorporating said informational segments so as to prescribe said flow of management operations both intrarelationaly within each said organizational unit and interrelationally between said organizational units, the functional flow associated with each said refined core function being characterized by at least one nexus between said functional flow and the functional flow associated with at least one other refined function but does not disclose or fairly suggest wherein each said undertaking that requires action to be taken by at least two said organizational units is carried out in accordance with at least one said nexus between two said functional flows associated with said refined core functions respectively performed by said at least two said organizational units. None of the prior art cited above teaches maintaining currency of said manual as stored in said central computer, said maintaining currency including electronically modifying of said manual, by at least one said organizational unit, with respect to at least one nexus between the respective functional flows associated with at least two said refined functions.

3. Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement for Reasons for Allowance."
